“ She was a very sweet lady. She was a neighbor to my parents growing up. I remember her as having a very sweet disposition and very caring. My condolences to the family.

“ Dear Jeanne,

We did not get to know our Aunt Mary Lou very well but whenever we did see her, she was a sweet lady. My youngest sister, Julie, was her husband's (Uncle Otto) god daughter. Julie always got the most wonderful gift from him at Christmas and I have no doubt that Aunt Mary Lou picked them out!

Even when a parent is 91, it is still a significant loss. I am sorry for your loss. It was so good that you moved back to Ferdinand when she got older especially after she went into the Nursing Home. It is so important that there is someone to check on residents frequently. You and your brother and her remaining sister-in-law will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Be good to yourself!
Your cousin, Helen Fritz Welter
